80. BUSINESS ITEM

80.1 Visit from Mayor Frizzell

Mayor Frizzell gave her apologies that she can't attend tonight.

80.2 Sound Transit Art Program (Ashley Long & Preston Singletary)

Ashley Long / Preston Singletary / Barbara Luecke / David Franklin presented drafts of Preston Singletary's art for the station. Ashley Long also told us that there will be temporary art from 7 artists at a time printed on vinyl.

80.3 2021 Annual Report

Motion by R Gutcheck, second by R Kruse to approve the annual report with minor changes, unanimously approved.

80.4 Public Art Procedures

Motion by R Kruse, second by L Hanson to approve the 2022 Public Art Acquisition Procedures, unanimously approved.

80.5 Community Justice Center Art Project

Call to artists resulted in 36 applications, with a large # of submissions by artists of color. There may be as many as 12 finalists, and 8 artists selected. CPC Wong is assembling the jury panel. We discussed hiring a mentor to be available for finalists/artists who may need guidance in the details of producing public art. This is in the interest of equity, to be more inclusive of marginalized artists.

80.6 City Center Branding

City Center Manager Karl Almgren gave an overview of city center and two proposed brands and various taglines, and asked for feedback.

80.7 Member recruitment

Looking for person with experience in architecture, public art, and/or diversity, equity and inclusion

80.8 Equity & Social Justice work

Postponed.
