70. BUSINESS ITEM

70.1 Fair on 44th: recap

Our booth was a great success. 15 - 2x4s were decorated, and donated to Habitat for Humanity. We also handed out lots of flyers about Bra Bedazzle.

70.2 Bra-Bedazzle

Citrine Health is so thrilled that we are holding this event with them. We discussed supplies needs, day of logistics, and how to exhibit the bras at city hall.

70.3 Art of Food & Wine

- Location still undecided.

- Need to see what dates are available after we decide on venue (hopefully March or April 2024)

70.4 Signal Box Art Wrap – Veterans Box

We discussed design mock-up. We also agreed that we'll use only photos of veterans in uniform for art wrap. We have over 40 photos.

70.5 Community Justice Center Art Project

Installation date has been pushed back to December or January, due to construction schedule. Artists have been notified.

70.6 Cultural Arts Plan - updates

We reviewed changes. Staff will bring updated version for adoption.

70.7 Cultural Access Fund

- Cultural Access Fund allows a city or a county to collect a new 0.1% sales tax or property tax to fund projects for arts, science, heritage non-profits.
- The new modified bill allows county/city council to vote for the fund instead of a public vote.
- Snohomish County Arts Commission and supporters are strongly considering working on this. It would bring in $28 million/year for 7 years.
- Average household would pay around $30-$50 a year with this tax.
- Tacoma Creates has an annual report that shows how they've used their Access Fund money.

80. COUNCIL LIAISON REPORT

- Council made a proclamation for artist Alfredo Arreguin (who has one piece at City Hall). Arts Commission was not involved with it or told about it. Councilmember Hurst will bring it up at a meeting.
- Councilmember Hurst inquires if there are any candidates for Arts Commission vacancies.

90. FUTURE BUSINESS

Starting a non-profit in Lynnwood.

100. ADJOURNMENT

Meeting adjourned at 8:16pm.
