2.B) Request for Waiver by MHK Architecture pursuant to Section 2-975(d)(4) of the Ethics Code.

Executive Director Michael Murawski introduced the item. He explained that Kimley Horn and MHK Architecture were retained to design upgrades to Baker Park, but MHK Architecture needed the waiver to present other private projects to the boards, committees, and City Council for approval, due to being contracted by the City.

Mark McLean, National Director at MHK Architecture, informed the Commission that MHK Architecture will be updating the Eva Sugden Gomez Center with 2 new offices and a storage area, and additional bathrooms will be built closer to the parking area. Questions were answered throughout, and the following motion was proffered.

MOTION by Cardillo to APPROVE a waiver for MHK Architecture; unanimously carried, all Commissioners present and voting (Black-yes, Cardillo-yes, Douglas-yes, Gerry-yes, Perry-yes).
